

South Florida Sun-Sentinel

NOVEMBER 24, 2007

Building on Success

Why to buy now

Transcending the market

Boston-based developer E.A. Fish Associates announced that over 335 of the units at Latitude on the River, situated along the Miami River, have closed. Nearly 100 homeowners have moved into the luxury 452-unit condominium since August; with more residing here every day. The project was delivered on time this past July with all features and finishes in place. Here's a South Florida project that has transcended the market.